Transition from Mechanical Engineering to Merchant Navy (By Alumni Connect Center under Alumni Engagement Program)

A counselling session on Transition from Mechanical Engineering to Merchant Navy was organised by Dr. Atul N. Meshram, Coordinator, Alumni Connect Center (ACC), department of Mechanical Engineering under the Alumni Engagement Program. Amongst many of our distinguished Alumnus who joined the field of Marine Engineering, Mr. Danish Khan our Mechanical Engineering pass-out student (2024 Pass-out), who has done Graduate Marine Engineering (GME) after graduation. Mr. Danish has completed his GME course and now ready to go offshore. He was requested by Dr. Atul Meshram to come for a career counselling session on 27th Feb 2026.

Total Student Attendees = 40

The session on Transition from Mechanical Engineering to Merchant Navy was scheduled for Mechanical Engineering students, to get more insight on the Marine Engineering field. The main purpose or objective of inviting Mr. Danish was to conduct a Session for our students and make students aware of the Marine Engineering field.

The main objective of this career counselling session:

1. To know the Roadmap to Merchant Navy.
2. To Get tips on how to clear the sponsorship and interviews.
3. To get an overview of GME Life during training at the Academy.
4. To know a the everyday life of an Engine Cadet.
5. Get answers to all the queries of students related to merchant navy

We feel proud to see our very own alumnus Mr. Danish Khan (Distinguished Alumnus of AIKTC- 2024 Pass-out Batch) and delighted to see his keeness in helping our students in shaping their career and making them aware of the field.

Dr. Atul Meshram thanked and welcomed Mr. Danish for coming for the career counselling session on a very short notice. The session started at 11.00 AM and was very fruitful and interactive. The session will definitely help student understand the requirement of GME, what and how to prepare for Graduate Marine Engineering,

The session comprised of the discussion on:

1. Overview on Marine Engineering
2. What after Graduation
3. How to get into GME
4. Institutes available in and around & Approximate Fee
5. What to prepare for before deciding to join Marine Engineering,
6. Process to join Graduate Marine Engineering.
7. What you learn during GME & Course duration.

Mr. Danish explained everything in detail and students got answers to their queries on the field of Marine Engineering. Students were participating in discussion and Safwan was addressing to their individual queries. He assured that he is always available and will come whenever possible to guide students in every possible way.

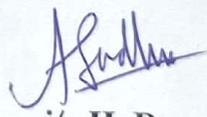

We at Alumni Connect Center (ACC), will keep conducting similar sessions for our students so that they excel in their studies and help them make a right choice of the career. Dr. Atul Meshram thanked Mr. Danish Khan for the interactive and fruitful session. The session got over at 12.00 noon.

Report is prepared by Prof. Atul Meshram, Coordinator, Alumni Connect Center, department of Mechanical Engineering.
