Target Group	: Students of FE(AIML) & SE(AIML)

DESCRIPTION OF EVENT/ ACTIVITY:

Engineers' Day was celebrated on 15th September by the Neuronyx Club, functioning under the ACM Chapter, to pay tribute to Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya and acknowledge the contributions of engineers in driving innovation and progress. The celebration brought together students to engage in both technical and fun activities that showcased creativity, problem-solving, and teamwork.

The event featured three main games—Shark Tank, a team-based pitch competition that enhanced innovation and presentation skills; AI Image Generation, where individuals designed posters using AI tools with creative prompts; and Mingle Mingle, a networking activity that encouraged interaction and collaboration among students. Winners received Google pens and Celebration boxes, while all participants were gifted Google stickers as tokens of appreciation. The event truly celebrated the spirit of engineering while inspiring enthusiasm for technology and collaboration among students.
